bob bitchin has a unique perspective from which to describe the sailing life as founder and editor of the highly successful magazine latitudes attitudes he surveys and comments on the good and the bad the funny and the sad the practical and the theoretical of the sailing scene this collection of his editorials and other writings is full of useful advice keen observations and yes some outrageous comments as only bob can put them on paper readers of his bestseller letters from the lost soul will be delighted with this unique guide to the sailing life like latitudes attitudes captain bob is down to earth irreverent and always entertaining in 1965 16 year old robin lee graham began a solo around the world voyage from san pedro california in a 24 foot sloop five years and 33 000 miles later he returned to home port with a wife and daughter and enough extraordinary experiences to fill this bestselling book dove time did not exist or if it did it did not mater our world then was both wide and narrow wide in the immensity of the sea and mountain narrow in that the boat was very small and we lived and camped explored and swam in a little realm of our own making this is the fascinating true adventure story of a woman who packed her five children onto a twenty five foot boat and explored the coastal waters of british columbia summer after summer in the 1920s and 1930s acting single handedly as skipper navigator engineer and of course mother muriel wylie blanchet saw her crew through exciting and sometimes perilous encounters with fog rough seas cougars bears and whales and did so with high spirits and courage on these pages an independent woman with a deep respect for the native cultures of a region and a refreshing wonderment about the natural world comes to life in the curve of time she has left us with a sensitive and lyrically written account of their journeys and a timeless travel memoir not to be missed the true story of a young couple who quit their jobs and set sail for a year on the ocean with no boating experience amy and jimmy were not sailors and their experience on the seas included reading a few books watching a couple of instructional videos and boating once a week each year they were middle class land lubbers audacious and in love and all they wanted was to be together and do something extraordinary the box wine sailors tells the true story of a couple's ramshackle trip down the coast with all the exulting highs and terrifying lows of sailing a small boat on the pacific from sailing on thanksgiving morning under spectacular bright blue californian skies just off the channel islands as dolphins raced alongside their boat to the terrifying experience of rounding punta gorda and hanging on to the mast for dear life it also tells the story of two very normal people doing what most people only dream of and settling the argument that if you want something bad enough you can make it happen before the perfect storm before in the heart of the sea steven callahan's dramatic tale of survival at sea was on the new york times bestseller list for more than thirty six weeks in some ways the model for the new wave of adventure books adrift is an undeniable seafaring classic a riveting firsthand account by the only man known to have survived more than a month alone at sea fighting for his life in an inflatable raft after his small sloop capsized only six days out utterly absorbing newsweek adrift is a must have for any adventure library a story of secrets sisterhood and adventure aboard the titanic now a netflix film the inspiring true story of jessica watson an australian teenager who set out to sail solo around the world on may 15 2010 after 210 days at sea and more than 22 000 nautical miles 16 year old jessica watson sailed her 33 foot boat triumphantly back to land she had done it she was the youngest person to sail solo unassisted and nonstop around the world jessica spent years preparing for this moment years focused on achieving her dream yet only eight months before she collided with a 63 000 ton freighter it seemed to many that she'd failed before she'd even begun but jessica brushed herself off held her head high and kept going told in jessica's own words true spirit is the story of her epic voyage it tells how a young girl once afraid of everything decided to test herself on an extraordinary adventure that included gale force winds mountainous waves hazardous icebergs and extreme loneliness on a vast sea with no land in sight and no help close at hand true spirit is an inspiring story of risk guts determination and achievement that ultimately proves we all have the power to live our dreams no matter how big or small sailing alone around the world is a sailing memoir by joshua slocum in 1900 about his single handed global circumnavigation aboard the sloop spray michael mann's solo voyage was part impulsiveness but also meticulously planned with preparation and cunning determination during a grueling 38 day ocean crossing his basic sailing skills would be challenged by tranquil doldrums as well as hostile seas churned up by an approaching hurricane his 15 foot montgomery sloop little breeze lacked the navigation and communication equipment available today without gps and weather updates he was forced to rely on his own instincts limited experience and sheer resolve this is his true story which chronicles this 22 year old s single handed quest to find his purpose and calling in life in the tradition of into thin air and the perfect storm comes a breathtaking oceanic adventure about an obsessive desire to test the limits of human endurance in 1968 nine sailors set off on the most daring race ever held and never before completed to single handedly circumnavigate the globe nonstop ten months later only one of the nine men would cross the finish line and earn fame wealth and glory for the others the reward was madness failure and death gorgeously written and meticulously researched by author peter nichols this extraordinary book chronicles the contest of the individual against the sea waged at a time before cell phones satellite dishes and electronic positioning systems a voyage for madmen is a tale of sailors driven by their own dreams and demons of horrific storms and of those riveting moments when a decision means the difference between life and death this timeless classic is an exciting true story of survival against all odds tropical waters turn tumultuous in this travel memoir as a free spirited woman jumps headfirst into a sailing adventure with a new man and his two dogs join liesbet as she faces a decision that sends her into a whirlwind of love loss and living in the moment when she swaps life as she knows it for an uncertain future on a sailboat she succumbs to seasickness and a growing desire to be alone guided by impulsiveness and the joys of an alternative lifestyle she must navigate personal storms trouble with us immigration adverse weather conditions and doubts about her newfound love does liesbet find happiness will the dogs outlast the man or is this just another reality check on a dream to live at sea have you ever wondered how life could be if you had made different choices if you didn't marry early commit to a large loan for the house focus on your career start a family maybe you're just curious about how a person thinking outside the box manages a person without boundaries striving to be flexible happy and free what you are about to read is how one such person follows her dreams no her intuition and how she survives her naivety life altering twists and a relationship in close quarters plunge is a story of what happens when you go with the flow when you have a bright idea or thought you had one and ride the waves of the unknown ready to hop aboard and delve in the amazing autobiographical account of the youngest ever solo circumnavigation of the earth first time in english if you want to see the other side of the world you can do two things turn the world upside down or travel there yourself in 2012 at the age of just 16 laura dekker became the youngest sailor ever to single handedly circumnavigate the globe in realising her long held dream she had not only braved the wild oceans and long weeks of solitude at sea but also the doubts and sometimes hostile resistance of officials in this remarkable account of her incredible journey for the first time in english laura describes in her own words what it is like to sail solo around the world and the determination it takes to do it at such a young age exciting awe inspiring and inspirational this is a real life adventure for readers of all ages sailing ten years and 20 000 miles in search of surf and self george meegan is an adventurer lecturer school reformer and world traveler he holds eight guinness world records the most official world records for any european this includes the longest unbroken march of all time that which is described in this book the epic journey he began linked tierra del fuego south america to prudhoe bay alaska the 19 019 miles was completed in 2 425 days 41 million steps he was shot at and nearly killed by a street gang in panama he traversed the historically impassable darien gap married his japanese sweetheart became a father and was welcomed by us president jimmy carter across the united states the world walker preceded town to town george found he had discovered the american dream from new york where he was honoured by meegan day in brooklyn he proceeded through northern usa into canada s yukon and onto the final step into the arctic circle on the afternoon of september 18 1983 he crossed frozen tundra to the edge of the arctic ocean dipped his hand into the cold slivery water and was done he fell to his knees and wept until this day no human had ever traversed the entire americas be it by vehicle or even ship or aircraft but of course meegan was on foot today nearly three decades later the feat remains unequaled at age 31 george meegan had walked 19 019 unbroken miles and rose from the water s edge to face a new challenge of dealing with his journey for the entire remainder of his life the longest walk took place between 1977 and 1983 in 2000 he completed about 500km across the ice to reach barrow alaska the largest eskimo settlement in the world it was the final action of the 20th century at the historic millennium meegan uniquely got the usa government by order of the white house to fall down on knees and apologize before to the first nations for historical travesties the story of the longest walk found its way to dodd mead of new york just before publication the book editor died and then after 199 years dodd mead slipped beneath the waves into bankruptcy so notwithstanding powered coverage it was too late the sunk publisher took the book down with them after being told that his book was bound to become a bestseller the english publishers told him they would publish nothing he wrote in 1989 paragon house pressed out a few thousand copies but few saw it xlibris etc of philadelphia resurrected it all in all not a success still from time to time meegan received letters asking about the abrupt vanish of the longest walk now the answer is the 2021 third edition this is the original story with unpublished photos an extended appendix and yoshiko his wife makes an encore it was an age without gps and the internet without high tech monitoring and instantaneous reporting and it was a time when women simply didn't do such things none of this deterred sharon sites adams in june 1965 adams made history as the first woman to sail solo from the mainland united states to hawaii four years later just as neil armstrong very publicly stepped onto the moon the diminutive adams alone and unobserved finally sighted point arguello california after seventy four days sailing a thirty one foot ketch from japan across the violent and unpredictable pacific she was the first woman to do so setting another world record inspiring and exciting adams's memoir recounts the personal path leading to her historic achievements a tomboy childhood in the oregon high desert an early marriage and painful divorce and a second marriage that ended when her husband died of cancer in the wake of his death and almost by accident adams discovered sailing six weeks after her first sailing lesson she bought a boat and within eight months she set out to achieve her first world record pacific lady recounts the inward journey that paralleled her sailing feats as adams drew on every scrap of courage and navigational skill she could muster to overcome the seasickness exhaustion and loneliness that marked her harrowing crossings in a work that beautifully demonstrates the rewards of closely observing nature elisabeth tova bailey shares an inspiring and intimate story of her encounter with a neohelix albolabris a common woodland snail while an illness keeps her bedridden bailey watches a wild snail that has taken up residence on her nightstand as a result she discovers the solace and sense of wonder that this mysterious creature brings and comes to a greater understanding of her own place in the world intrigued by the snail's molluscan anatomy cryptic defenses clear decision making hydraulic locomotion and courtship activities bailey becomes an astute and amused observer offering a candid and engaging look into the curious life of this underappreciated small animal the sound of a wild snail eating is a remarkable journey of survival and resilience showing us how a small part of the natural world can illuminate our own human existence while providing an appreciation of what it means to be fully alive recounts the author's attempt to become the youngest person to sail around the world discussing how her faith helped her through her encounters on the open sea and her dramatic rescue in the indian ocean now with a brand new foreword from new york times bestselling author jeffrey zaslow first you have to row a little boat first hit shelves in the mid 1990s and has been inspiring readers ever since written by a grown man looking back on his childhood it reflects on what learning to sail taught him about life making choices adapting to change and becoming his own person the book is filled with the spiritual wisdom and thought provoking discoveries that marked such books as walden the prophet and zen and the art of motorcycle maintenance for nearly twenty years it has enchanted and endeared sailors and non sailors alike but foremost anyone who seeks large truths in small things this refurbished edition will find a place in the hearts of a whole new generation of readers the long way is bernard moitessier s own incredible story of his participation in the first golden globe race a solo non stop circumnavigation rounding the three great capes of good hope leeuwin and the horn for seven months the veteran seafarer battled storms doldrums gear failures knock downs as well as overwhelming fatigue and loneliness then nearing the finish moitessier pulled out of the race and sailed on for another three months before ending his 37 455 mile journey in tahiti not once had he touched land at only 16 years of age jessica watson became the youngest person to sail solo unassisted and non stop around the world in her very own words she tells us about her childhood her influences her years of planning and her incredible journey she shares how she battled with sleep deprivation gale force winds mountainous seas whales and icebergs and what it was like to hold firm against the solitude of 210 days at sea new york times bestseller laurie r king enriches the sherlockian legacy the boston globe for mary russell and her husband sherlock holmes returning to the sussex coast after seven months abroad was especially sweet there was even a mystery to solve the unexplained disappearance of an entire colony of bees from one of holmes s beloved hives but the anticipated sweetness of their homecoming is quickly tempered by a galling memory from the past mary had met damian adler only once before when the surrealist painter had been charged with and exonerated from murder now the troubled young man is enlisting the holmeses help again this time in a desperate search for his missing wife and child mary has often observed that there are many kinds of madness and before this case yields its shattering solution she ll come into dangerous contact with a fair number of them from suicides at stonehenge to the dark secrets of a young woman s past on the streets of shanghai mary will find herself on the trail of a killer more dangerous than any she s ever faced a killer sherlock holmes himself may be protecting for reasons near and dear to his heart at 35 years old kelly and paul watts sold their home and quit their jobs to sail around the world without any sailing experience two days after purchasing their forty two foot sloop they got caught in a forty knot gale off the coast of cape fear nc their sails ripped the engine overheated the gps broke they suffered hypothermia and severe seasickness and yet they persevered on their journey discovering the playful sea lions of the galapagos the seductive dance of the polynesian girls and the primitive beat of tuvaluan music all while learning how to sail and repair their boat they narrowly avoided a shark attack in suwarrow fled from suspected pirates off the coast of ecuador and hit a submerged container the fear of all sailors near midway island what started as a search to find meaning to life without children only strengthened their desire to have a family after fertility attempts failed in america and new zealand they unexpectedly adopted a two month old baby in kiribati and so began the adventure of raising a baby on a boat in the middle of the pacific battling dengue fever and an epidemic of e coli almost losing their lives in a 60 knot westerly gale and navigating through the maze of international adoption paperwork told from kelly s conversational point of view sailing to jessica will inspire anyone who is searching for meaning in their life to get up and find it inspired by thoreau ilgunas set out on a spartan path to pay off 32 000 in undergraduate student loans by scrubbing toilets and making beds in coldfoot alaska determined to graduate debt free after enrolling in graduate school he lived in an econoline van in a campus parking lot saving and learning much about the cost of education today the only sailing manual you will ever need covering everything from sailing basics to making repairs and mastering navigation the undisputed market leader in sailing guides this fully revised and updated sailing manual with a foreword by quadruple olympic gold medallist sir ben ainslie answers questions about any sailing situation with thorough coverage of all aspects of sailing and boat ownership in dk s the complete sailing manual former british national champion steve sleight offers a wealth of expert advice and guidance in the form of a complete course on seamanship which is brought to life with breathtaking action photography and clear instructions fully revised this new edition features all of the latest developments in sailing including foiling long distance cruising and high speed apparent wind sailing and navigation with technology such as modern performance systems and electronic navigation it also highlights the latest rules regulations and best practices necessary for every avid sailor from the novice to the seasoned seaperson includes essential information handy diagrams and step by step illustrations the complete sailing manual is the ultimate sailing ebook to keep by your side when you re out on the waves 2016 santa fe literary awards finalist 2016 next generation indie book awards finalist 2016 usa best book awards finalist in the memoir category 2016 author awards 2nd place in the memoir category a sheknows com and mind body and green must read featured in buzzfeed working mother magazine the reading room brit and co writer s digest style huffington post jewish book council and jewish values center at age nineteen dorit sasson a dual american israeli citizen was trying to make the status quo work as a college student until she realized that if she didn t distance herself from her neurotic worrywart of a mother she would become just like her accidental soldier a memoir of service and sacrifice in the israel defense forces is sasson s story of how she dropped out of college and volunteered for the israel defense forces in an effort to change her life and how in stepping out of her comfort zone and into a war zone she discovered courage and faith she didn t know she was capable of recounts the efforts after their five year sea voyage around the world of graham and his wife to find a rewarding way of life and their pioneer style life in the montana woods nita and kit return from their wizardly holiday looking forward to getting back to their everyday routine but there s trouble brewing a strange darkness of the mind and heart is about to befall the older wizards of the world stealing away their power soon the young wizards of earth and many other planets find themselves forced to defend wizards and nonwizards alike against an invasion of a kind they've never imagined but mere defense won't be enough to combat the evil afoot with their alien teammates nita kit and dairine must race to search worlds known and unknown for the secret weapon the powers that be have promised them before the minions of the sinister lone power find it first and then for the first time in millenia the wizards must go to war new love exotic destinations a once in a lifetime adventure what could go wrong city girl torre deroche isn't looking for love but a chance encounter in a san francisco bar sparks an instant connection with a soulful argentinean man who unexpectedly sweeps her off her feet the problem he's just about to cast the dock lines and voyage around the world on his small sailboat and torre is terrified of deep water however lovesick torre determines that to keep the man of her dreams she must embark on the voyage of her nightmares so she waves good bye to dry land and braces for a life changing journey that's as exhilarating as it is terrifying somewhere mid pacific she finds herself battling to keep the old boat the new relationship and her floundering sanity afloat this sometimes hilarious often harrowing and always poignant memoir is set against a backdrop of the world's most beautiful and remote destinations equal parts love story and travel memoir love with a chance of drowning is witty charming and proof positive that there are some risks worth taking in 1985 at the age of 18 tania aebi set out to sail around the world alone in this volume she presents a compendium of sailing experience and reflections it is suitable reading for the armchair sailor dreaming about sailing one day as well as the sailor in the cockpit actively chasing those horizons choosing a mate is like picking house paint from one of those tiny color squares you never know how it will look across a large expanse or how it will change in different light meet janna and graeme after a decade long tango together apart together apart they're back in love but the stress of nine to five is seriously hampering their happiness so they quit their jobs tie the knot and untie the lines on a beat up old sailboat for a most unusual honeymoon a two year voyage across the pacific but passage from first date to first mate is anything but smooth sailing from the rugged pacific northwest coast to the blue lagoons of polynesia to bustling asian ports janna and graeme find themselves at the mercy of poachers under the spell of crossdressers and under the gun of a less than sober tattooist and they encounter do or die moments that threaten their safety their sanity and their marriage join janna and graeme's 17 000 mile journey and their quest to resolve the uncertainties so many couples face how do you know if you've really found the one how do you balance duty to others while preserving space for yourself and when the waters get rough do you jump ship or do you learn to navigate the world together what begins as the sheer desire for adventure turns into a spiritual quest as a young woman comes to terms with her family her dreams and her first love tania aebi was an unambitious eighteen year old a bicycle messenger in new york city by day a lower east side barfly at night in short she was going nowhere until her father offered her a challenge tania could choose either a college education or a twenty six foot sloop the only catch was that if she chose the sailboat she d have to sail around the world alone she chose the boat and for the next two and a half years and 27 000 miles it was her home with only her cat as companion she discovered the wondrous beauties of the great barrier reef and the death dealing horrors of the red sea she suffered through a terrifying collision with a tanker in the mediterranean and a lightning storm off the coast of gibraltar and ultimately what began with the sheer desire for adventure turned into a spiritual quest as tania came to terms with her troubled family life fell in love for the first time and most of all confronted her own needs desires dreams and goals recounts the voyage of a california sixteen year old who spent nearly five years sailing alone around the world on friday 14 june 1968 suhaili a tiny ketch slipped almost unnoticed out of falmouth harbour steered by the solitary figure at her helm robin knox johnston ten and a half months later suhaili paintwork peeling and rust streaked her once white sails weathered and brown her self steering gone her tiller arm jury rigged to the rudder head came romping joyously back to falmouth to a fantastic reception for robin who had become the first man to sail round the world non stop single handed by every standard it was an incredible adventure perhaps the last great uncomputerised journey left to man every hazard every temptation to abandon the astounding voyage came robin s way from polluted water tanks smashed cabin top and collapsed boom to lost self steering gear and sheered off tiller and all before the tiny ketch had fought her way to cape horn the point of no return the fearsome test of any seaman s nerve and determination a world of my own is robin s gripping uninhibited moving account of one of the greatest sea adventures of our time an instant bestseller it is now reissued for a new generation of readers to be enthralled and inspired i know you ll want to read more after you finish sailing a serious ocean and be warned you ll very likely want to sail with john perhaps across an ocean dallas murphy author of rounding the horn after sailing 300 000 miles and weathering dozens of storms in all the world s oceans john kretschmer has plenty of stories and advice to share john s offshore training passages sell out a year in advance and his entertaining presentations are popular at boat shows and yacht clubs all over the english speaking world john s talent for storytelling enchants his audience as it soaks up the lessons he learned during his oftenchallenging voyages now you can take a seat next to john at a lesser cost and get the knowledge you need to fulfill your own dream of blue water adventure in sailing a serious ocean john tells you what to expect when sailing the oceans and shows how to sail safely across them his tales of storm encounters and other examples of extreme seamanship will help you prepare for your journey and give you confidence to handle any situation even heavy weather through his personal stories john will guide you through the whole process of choosing the right boat outfitting with the right gear planning your route navigating the ocean and understanding the nuances of life at sea our oceans are beautiful yet unpredictable water that is at one moment a natural mirror for the glowing sun can turn into a foamy raging wall of fury john knows our oceans and he is one of the best teachers of taming and enjoying them before you set off across the big blue turn to john for his inspirational stories and hard learned advice and discover the serious sailor in you a one time demon hunter who has put her career on hold kate conner finds herself back in business when a murderous demon interrupts her preparations for a dinner party designed to get her husband elected to county attorney reprint stories of the world s most adventurous sailors edited by tom lochhaasas vivid and engrossing as great sea fiction intrepid voyagers captures the real life adventures of fifteen legendary long distance sailors men and women who have sailed to the ends of the earth and returned to write about it tania aebi naomi james robert manry hugo vihlen val howells bernard moitessier and other greats chronicle the joys fears sacrifices and triumphs of life at sea with an immediacy and grace that will resonate with sailors and landlubbers alike
