available in the ebook version this volume brings together work by both well known scholars and emerging researchers in the various areas of language for specific purposes lsp such as political legal medical and business discourse the volume is divided into three parts in order to align rather than separate three different but related aspects of lsp namely translation linguistic research and domain specific communication on the web underlying all the contributions here is the growing awareness of the ever increasing multiformity of specialised communication and the ever wider social implications of the communicative situations in which it is embedded especially where it involves the need to move across languages cultures and modes as in translation and interpreting the contributions consistently bear witness to the need to review received notions pose new questions and explore fresh perspectives the picture that emerges is one of extreme complexity in which researchers into specifically linguistic aspects of lps and their translation across languages and media declare their awareness of the pressing need to come to terms with a wide range of social pragmatic intercultural and political factors above and beyond socio technical knowledge of the domains under investigation prima di te è la quarta parte del libro di alexander nevorov 300 milioni di
